Any person keeping or harboring any dog within the corporate limits of the city shall pay a fee of $10.00 on any neutered male dog and any spayed female dog; and $20.00 on any unneutered male dog or any unspayed female dog. Dog licenses are lifetime and non-transferrable.

Dogs within the city are to be confined in a sufficient enclosure from which said dog(s) cannot escape. In the event any dog is found running at large, a law enforcement officer may issue a citation to the owner of such dog for violation of city ordinance and if found guilty of such violation in the Municipal Court of the city, the owner shall pay as follows: (1) First offense $75 and all court costs (2) Second offense $150 and all court costs (3) Third and subsequent offenses $300 and all court costs. The complete ordinance code is available online at www.smithcenterks.com.
