

Youth Life Skills Program

When: July 10-14, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Where: Schuyler County Community Center, 308 Main Street, Glenwood

Who: Youth Ages 11 to 13

Transportation is available if arranged for by the registration deadline. Local churches are graciously providing this service.

Youth will engage in hands-on learning around cooking, balanced eating and exercise, entrepreneurship, civic engagement, money management, attitudes, responsibility, communication and problem solving.

MU Extension instructors, Darla Campbell, Kelli Harris, Shyla Elliott, and Jeremiah Terrell will be conducting this program.

An incentive will be provided for up to $50 to those students who attend the entire week, arrive and leave on the 9-5 schedule, and positively participate.

Program sponsors include MU Extension, Tri-County Electric, the Schuyler County Ministerial Alliance and anonymous donors.

Registration will be limited to 25 participants. To register by June 30th, call Darla or Sara at 660-457-3469 or 660-457-3822. There will be required paperwork before youth enrollment can be finalized.

MU Extension provides equal opportunity to all participants in extension programs and activities and for all employees and applicants for employment on the basis of their demonstrated ability and competence without discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, genetic information, disability or protected veteran status.
