

STAY HOME – WORK SAFE
AMENDING THE DECLARATION OF DISASTER
BY THE MAYOR OF THE CITY OF HUDSON

Whereas, on March 13, 2020, a Declaration of State of Disaster was issued by Governor Abbott to take additional steps to prepare for, respond to, and mitigate the spread of COVID-19 to protect the health and welfare of Texans; and

Whereas, on March 17, 2020, a Declaration of Local Disaster was issued by Mayor Robert Smith to allow the City of Hudson to take measures to reduce the possibility of exposure to COVID-19 and promote the health and safety of the residents of Hudson, Texas; and

Whereas, the COVID-19 virus is contagious and spreads through person-to-person contact, especially in group settings; and

Whereas, on March 15, 2020, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (“CDC”) recommended that organizers (whether groups or individuals) cancel or postpone in-person events that consist of 50 people or more throughout the United States; and

Whereas, on March 16, 2020, President Trump acknowledged the gravity of the COVID-19 pandemic, releasing strict new guidelines to limit people’s interactions, including that Americans should avoid groups of more than 10 people; and

Whereas, on March 19, 2020, Governor Abbott issued Executive Order GA 08 Relating to COVID-19 Preparedness and Mitigation stating people shall avoid social gatherings in groups of more than 10 people and closed all schools until April 3, 2020; and

Whereas, on March 24, 2020, The City Council of the City of Hudson passed a Resolution extending the Declaration for 30 days.

Whereas, further restriction of movement of persons is necessary to reduce the substantial risk of harm to the public and, therefore, as long as this Order is in effect, all individuals anywhere in the City of Hudson are required to stay at home, except to perform certain essential activities, or to perform work in or obtain services from an Essential Business, Essential Government Service, or in Critical Infrastructure.

Whereas, the confirmation of a case of COVID-19 in Angelina County and the potential for the rapid spread of the virus, and the recommendation of the Angelina County and Cities Health District, the support of both CHI St Luke’s Medical Center and the Woodland Heights Medical Center that even stronger measures are needed warrants the Disaster Declaration to be amended.

NOW THEREFORE, I, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF HUDSON, PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY VESTED BY TEXAS GOVERNMENT CODE CHAPTER 418, HEREBY FIND AND ORDER THAT:

SECTION 1. Stay at Home or Place of Residence. Effective as of 11:59 p.m. on March 31, 2020, and continuing until April 30, 2020, unless terminated or modified by a subsequent Order, the Mayor of the City of Hudson, Texas, deems it in the public interest to issue this Order and ORDERS that all individuals currently living within the City of Hudson stay at their place of residence. All persons may leave their residence to perform certain Essential Activities, to perform work or obtain services from an Essential Business, Essential Government Service, Critical Infrastructure, engage in Essential Travel or Minimum Basic Operations as define Below.

SECTION 2. Business and Operations. All businesses or operations with a facility in the City of Hudson, must develop a written plan for the enforcement of the following requirements:

1. Procedure for maintaining at least six-foot distance from other individuals, including outside the immediate entrance of the business, as well as the building; and
2. Procedures for ensuring the regular cleaning of the surfaces within the business; and
3. Procedures the business will use to enforce such requirements.
4. Employers must monitor, prior to the beginning of each work day or shift for fever, dry cough shortness of breath, only those with none of the systems should be allowed to remain at work.
5. Said plan must be presented immediately when asked by any City Police Officer when asked

All Essential Businesses Essential Government Service, and Critical Infrastructure. are strongly encouraged to remain open, especially those that provide the basic necessities for food, water, and shelter. To the greatest extent feasible, Essential Businesses shall comply with Social Distancing Requirements as defined in Section 6 below. This Order shall not be construed to hinder the ability of the industries identified in the U.S. Department of Homeland Security Cyber and Infrastructure Security Agency's ("CISA") Essential Critical Infrastructure Workforce Memorandum dated March 19, 2020 to continue their operation appropriately modified to account for CDC workforce and consumer protection guidance, and the list of industries identified on that memorandum is incorporated in this Order by reference.

SECTION 3. Prohibited Activities. All public and private gatherings of any number of people occurring outside a single household or dwelling unit are prohibited, except for the limited purposes as expressly permitted by this Order. Nothing in this Order prohibits the gathering of members of a household or dwelling unit.

SECTION 4. Travel. All travel, including, but not limited to, travel on foot, bicycle, scooter, motorcycle, automobile, or public transit, is prohibited except for purposes of Essential Travel, performing Essential Activities or going to work in an Essential Business, Government Facility, or Critical Infrastructure, as defined in Section 6 below. To the greatest extent feasible, people riding on public transit shall comply with Social Distancing Requirements as defined in Section 6 below.

SECTION 5. Prior Order. That the findings and recitations set out in the preamble to this ORDER are found to be true and correct and they are hereby adopted by the Mayor and made a part hereof for all purposes.

SECTION 6. Definitions and Exemptions.

- a. Individuals experiencing homelessness are exempt from this Order except that, to the extent individuals are using shared or outdoor spaces, they shall, to the greatest extent feasible, maintain social distancing of at least six feet from any other person, consistent with the Social Distancing Requirements, as defined in this Section, below. Individuals experiencing homelessness are strongly urged to obtain shelter. Governmental and other entities are strongly urged to make such shelter available as soon as possible and to the maximum extent practicable and to use COVID-19 risk mitigation practices in their operation.
- b. Essential Activities. For purposes of this Order, individuals may leave their residence only to perform any of the following "Essential Activities." But people at high risk of severe illness from COVID-19 and people who are sick are urged to stay in their residence to the extent possible except as necessary to seek medical care.
